

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

My greatest asset is my ability to apply my eye for design to a range of digital and print media. I absorb and draw inspiration from the world around me, and am most satisfied when channeling and re-interpreting elements from this accumulated visual library to fit the needs of a project.

DESIGN EXPERIENCE

I have been a practicing designer for the better part of ten years and have been thinking like one for as long as I can remember. My employment history is as follows:

FULL-TIME

McClenahan Bruer Communications

11.2006-5.2008

Designed print and online ads, landing sites, web portals, trade show booth graphics, RFPs, HTML emails, PPT and Flash presentations
Earned the nickname "Automagic" for my never-fail behind-the-scenes creative sorcery

FREELANCE

Ten Bridges

1.2010-current

Designed and produced portal sites, landing pages, online ads
Learned just how big a Malamute really is (very)

Portland Energy Conservation, Inc.

10.2008-11.2008, 9.2010

Branded proposal documents, PPT docs, internal communications
Designed and illustrated event posters, icons
Integral to the sanity of Sara Morse, art director, during a time of work overload and transition

Bryan Potter Design

9.2008-10.2008

Designed political season mailers, logos, invites
Resisted the urge to play the foosball table

GoBig Branding

1.2006-2.2006

Executed packaging and environmental design
Learned the hard way that wasabi goes in the soy sauce, not globbed right on the sushi

Bohma-Creative

8.2005-12.2006

Designed gallery websites, promotional materials, and identity for artists, non-profits, and non-corporate clients
Managed all aspects of creative process and business

SYP Design & Production

2000-7.2006

Designed and produced elements for websites, flash and PDF documents, shot/retouched/prepared photos
